Grade4 : Pourquoi Tale

- 有了實體的書籍讓學生更了解 Pourquoi Tale

Pourquoi Tales

Since ancient times, humans have sought explanations for the mysteries of nature's beauty and variety. Like other kinds of folk stories, pourquoi tales can be considered parables about how humans and animals originated or why they look or behave the way they do.

How Tiger got His Stripes

Characteristics of Pourquoi Tales

Pourquoi, literally translated from the French, means "for why?" or "why?" The tales have emerged from many cultures through the oral tradition, and, in later history, they were written down to preserve and extend the cultural understanding of how something came to be the way it is. Most pourquoi tales explain "certain animal traits or characteristics or human customs".

Most all beginnings Come along when the world was new...

It tells "why" or "how" an animal, person, or object came to be as it is today.

How the first strawberry came to be.

The story ends by saying something like,
"So it was that strawberries came into the world."

The characters are animals with unique physical features.
One neck, four legs,
or spotted fur.

The story has a problem and solution in The First Strawberries the woman is not tempted by Satan, because that the Sun put in her path. As a solution, the Sun creates a new berry, the strawberry, that is so wonderful the woman notices it.

Names are not used for the characters, animals,
or people.
"Man and Woman shared the strawberries."

	Why Mosquitoes Buzz in People's Ears: A West African Tale	This is a jazzy inventive rendition of the West African folktale explaining the mosquito's buzz. A boast by a mosquito sends events bumping into each other like dominoes until the lion must call the animals together to untangle the truth.	Y
	How Chipmunk Got His Stripes: A Tale Of Bragging And Teasing	Dear brag that he can stop the sun from rising. Squirrel doesn't believe him, so they wait to see if the sun will rise. Sure, the sun appears. Squirrel is so happy that he teases Bear. What happens when a little squirrel teases a big bear?	H
	Why butterflies go by on silent wings	The forest and fields were throbbled with the loud sounds of animals everywhere. The butterflies made the loudest sounds. As the tedious drab butterflies flew from flower to flower, they boasted and teased. What happens to the noisy butterflies so they become the silent beautiful creatures that fly among the flowers today?	W
	Why the Sun and the Moon Live in the Sky	Sun and his wife, the moon, lived on Earth and built a large house so that the water people could visit. But so many poured in that they were forced to move.	W
	The Legend of the Indian Paintbrush	Many years ago, a young Indian boy had a Dream-One day he would create a painting that was as pure in the colors of the evening sky as sunset. The boy became the painter, but although he found a pure white buckskin for a canvas and made paints from the brightest flowers and the reddest berries, he could not capture the sunset.	I.
	The Legend of the Bluebonnet	When a killing drought threatened the existence of the tribe, a courageous little Comanche girl sacrifices her most beloved possession-and the Great Spirit's answer results not only in much needed rain but a very special gift in return.	I.
